New citizen's-arrest law greeted with applause, criticism

Critics of the law that came into force on Monday, including the Canadian Civil Liberties Association and the 7,500-member Ontario Convenience Stores Association, swiftly voiced concern that its sweep is too wide, and that it could endanger those who act upon it.

Like it or not, our society depends on lawyers

The first thing we do, let's kill all the lawyers." Er, I didn't say that. Shakespeare did. Political scientists have a little more respect when commenting on a related field of knowledge.

Offensive publicitaire contre le fédéral

À l'approche du budget fédéral, l'aile québécoise de l'Alliance de la fonction publique du Canada (AFPC) lance une série de publicités pour dénoncer les dernières rondes de compressions dans l'appareil fédéral et leurs conséquences pour les citoyens sur le terrain. Mais c'est aussi par crainte de subir de nouvelles réductions d'effectifs que le syndicat mène son offensive.
