

Table of Contents / Table des matières

April 3, 2018

Families worry accused killer could go free if judge shortage continues, Calgary Herald	Page 1
Former federal justice lawyer Schmidt accuses department of 'doublespeak' after losing appeal, Lawyer's Daily	Page 2
Relatives of woman, girl killed in Calgary raise concerns about court delays, The Globe and Mail	Page 3
There'll be no trial against bankrupt railway in Lac-Mégantic tragedy, Crown says, Toronto Star	Page 4
OPINION: In Canada, we criminalize public-interest speech, The Globe and Mail	Page 5

April 4, 2018

Supreme Court to weigh RCMP seizure of Vice News material, Toronto Star	Page 7
---	--------

April 5, 2018

Your letters: Debating the merits of Canada's proposed justice reform, Toronto Star	Page 9
Deux nouveaux juges à la Cour supérieure, Droit Inc	Page 10
Justice reform will speed up system, address biases, Sean Casey says, CBC News	Page 11
Morneau Shepell concludes successful Employers Connect events in eight Canadian cities	Page 12
Tax agency workers want in-house pay system to replace Phoenix, iPolitics	Page 14

April 6, 2018

Bill C-75 is justice reform that makes sense, The Globe and Mail	Page 16
There will only be one pay system for now and it's Phoenix: MP, iPolitics	Page 18

April 7, 2018

OPINION: Bill C-75: On criminal justice reform, the time for complacency is over, Toronto Sun	Page 20
---	---------

April 8, 2018

Evidence behind Ottawa's choice to cut preliminary inquiries remains elusive, CBC News	Page 21
Phoenix payroll debacle has Ottawa stuck in the muck, The Globe and Mail	Page 24

April 9, 2018

Changes to domestic violence law do not fix our broken system, The Globe and Mail	Page 25
Phoenix 'chaos' sends public servants into tax tailspin, CBC News	Page 27

Table of Contents / Table des matières