

Table of Contents

April 16, 2018

New Judges Appointed to the Ontario Court of Justice, Newswire	Page 1
Chasing an elusive consensus on justice reform, Policy Options	Page 2
High time to do away with the mandatory victim surcharge, The Province	Page 4
After 40 years, federal government removes barriers to disabled immigrants, National Post	Page 6
Justice system not living up to 1999 promise to Indigenous offenders, say N.W.T. advocates, CBC News	Page 8
Supreme Court to hear arguments on constitutionality of victim surcharge, The Globe and Mail	Page 10
Quebec Bar Association says all the province's laws are unconstitutional, iPolitics	Page 12
Ground zero in the battle to stop the Phoenix pay virus from spreading, Ottawa Citizen	Page 14

April 17, 2018

Barreau du Québec files bombshell motion, Canadian Lawyer Magazine	Page 19
Government launches training to help public servants 'understand' Phoenix, Ottawa Citizen	Page 21
OPINION: How I went from Supreme Court chief justice to 'Citizen McLachlin', Macleans	Page 22
Accused Calgary gang leader free, judge stays murder charge over trial delay, The Province	Page 24
Les barreaux accusés d'« entrer en guerre » contre le français, Droit Inc	Page 25

April 18, 2018

Public servants burned by Phoenix demand action from union, CBC News	Page 27
Les Linklater's job is to fix Phoenix—including for himself, The Hill Times	Page 28
Demande d'invalidation des lois: le Barreau se défend, Droit Inc	Page 32

April 19, 2018

Restorative justice: rebuilding relationships with society, Policy Options	Page 33
Judge says underfunded justice system 'failed' accused gang leader Nick Chan, who walked free this week, CBC News	Page 36
A youth justice system that's more than courts and prisons, Policy Options	Page 39
Supreme Court of Canada sets precedent in ruling on child-abduction cases, The Globe and Mail	Page 42

April 21, 2018

Le Barreau doit faire marche arrière, Le Devoir	Page 44
---	---------

Table of Contents

Community justice hubs to offer addiction, mental health support under same roof as courts, Toronto Star Page 46

April 23, 2018

Le Barreau doit faire marche arrière, Droit Inc Page 49