

Table of Contents / Table des matières

May 7th, 2018

Canada's extradition process is broken, Canadian Lawyer Magazine	Page 1
Une région où l'arrêt Jordan n'existe pas, Radio-Canada	Page 3

May 8th, 2018

Cleaning up the mandatory minimums mess, Policy Options IRPP	Page 4
--	--------

May 9th, 2018

Le Barreau du Haut-Canada n'est officiellement plus, Droit Inc	Page 7
--	--------

May 10th, 2018

Ban on homegrown pot would be paternalistic, former justice minister says, Toronto Star	Page 8
Phoenix pay fixes continue, but results are grindingly slow, Ottawa Citizen	Page 9
Supreme Court deems Quebec pay equity law unconstitutional, CTV News	Page 10
Un nouveau bâtonnier pour Montréal !, Droit Inc.	Page 11
Équité salariale : victoire partielle pour les syndicats à la Cour suprême, Radio-Canada	Page 12
Solving Phoenix could take up to nine years, NDP MP estimates, but minister disagrees, Hill Times	Page 13
Réforme des normes du travail : le Québec, bien loin de la France!, Droit Inc	Page 16
Accommodements raisonnables : rien de nouveau dit un prof de droit, Droit Inc	Page 17
Learning from our success in reducing youth imprisonment, Policy Options – IRPP	Page 18

May 11th 2018

How Beverley McLachlin wrote her first thriller while holding a full-time job as Chief Justice of Canada, Toronto Star	Page 21
Moving restorative justice into the mainstream, Policy Options – IRPP	Page 23
'Do something': Liberals faced angry backlash over Colten Boushie case, CBC News	Page 26
You might not care about striking lawyers – but you should, The Guardian	Page 28

Table of Contents / Table des matières

More than 600K cases still pending in Phoenix pay system, CBC News	Page 30
In Pod We Trust: Where we're at with Phoenix, iPolitics	Page 31
Judge can't end a trial just because he has 'heard enough,' appeal court rules, Toronto Star	Page 34
Court ruling settles little in continuing dispute over Kahnawake Mohawk membership law, The Globe and Mail	Page 36
Federal judge approves $875 million '60s Scoop settlement after hearings, The Province	Page 38
'Justice was not served:' Sixties Scoop survivors unhappy after approval of $875M settlement, CBC News	Page 39
5 erreurs que font les jeunes avocats sur les médias sociaux, Droit Inc.	Page 42

May 13th, 2018

Work still needed years after landmark ruling on Indigenous sentencing: lawyers, National Post	Page 45
Five things to know about the Gladue decision, The Chronicle Herald	Page 47
Federal government signs $500M contract with IBM without seeking bids, CBC News	Page 48

May 14th 2018

Akwesasne : qu'en est-il de l'expérience de justice réparatrice?, Radio-Canada	Page 50
Top prosecutor weighs in on criminal cases tossed by judge, Saskatoon StarPhoenix	Page 52
Supreme Court of Canada to keep records of deliberations secret for at least 50 years, The Globe and Mail	Page 54