

Table of Contents / Table des matières

May 14th 2018

Retired Supreme Court judges object to 50-year embargo on documents: 'Too long for any useful purpose', The Globe and Mail	Page 1
Man accused in military centre stabbing acquitted of terror charges, CTV News	Page 3

May 15th 2018

EDITORIAL: Supreme Court document embargo is too long by half, The Globe and Mail	Page 4
Serious Phoenix pay issues? Need a fast fix? Call the deputy minister, say public servants, CTV News	Page 6

May 16th 2018

Supreme Court of Canada pulled files years before embargo deal was struck, The Globe and Mail	Page 8
Editorial: A call to all lawyers, The Suburban	Page 10
Poursuite des barreaux : une AG extraordinaire organisée, Droit Inc	Page 11

May 17th 2018

Supreme Court declines to hear case of Mohamed Mahjoub, who's accused of having terror ties, Toronto Star/Ottawa Citizen/CTV News, The Canadian Press	Page 13
OPINION: The Supreme Court is being unjustifiably secretive about its internal deliberations, CBC News	Page 14
Le nouveau bâtonnier des Montréalais, Droit Inc	Page 16
B.C. government perpetuating colonial-style justice, Vancouver Sun	Page 18

May 18th 2018

The Supreme Court's failure to connect, The Globe and Mail	Page 21
Law Society runaround, Vancouver Sun	Page 22
Government vows better, faster service with revamped Phoenix client centres, iPolitics	Page 24

Table of Contents / Table des matières

May 19th 2018

Canada needs more space for indigenous people in academia, The Washington Post Page 26

La justice doit s'adapter aux nouvelles technologies, dit le juge Wagner, Radio-Canada Page 28

May 21st 2018

How Google-happy jurors are derailing Ontario trials, The Toronto Star Page 29