

Table of Contents / Table des matières

June 4, 2018

NB Southern Railway trial date to be set in July for oil transportation charges, CBC news	Page 1
Prosecutor testifying at perjury trial denies trying to conceal police corruption allegations, Toronto Star	Page 2
Man convicted in Lindhout kidnapping loses court bid for confidential information to help possible appeal, The Globe and Mail	Page 4

June 5, 2018

Targeted killings of Canadian ISIS members cloaked in secrecy, but officials discussed issue, Global News	Page 5
Ottawa's promised Indigenous rights bill not as advertised, says report from new think-tank, CBC News	Page 7
Head of inquiry into missing, murdered Indigenous women says scope will narrow after extension limited to six months, The Globe and Mail	Page 10

June 7, 2018

Mariage mixte à Kahnawake : les Mohawks n'iront pas en appel, Radio-Canada	Page 12
400 000 $ disparaissent des coffres d'un syndicat de la fonction publique, Radio-Canada	Page 14
New hires starting to whittle down Phoenix Pay backlog, Ottawa Citizen	Page 16
Opinion: Too many Indigenous women are in prison—but sentencing flexibility will help, Macleans	Page 17
'Shot across the bow': Federal government seeking $25K in legal fees from St. Anne's residential school lawyer, APTN National News	Page 19
Supreme Court of Canada asked to hear Hells Angels hitman case, CBC news	Page 22
Why Canada needs deferred prosecution agreements in our courtrooms, The Globe and Mail	Page 23

June 8, 2018

Opinion: The Phoenix disaster was predictable – and preventable, The Globe and Mail	Page 25
Ottawa credits hiring of new pay centre staff for drop in Phoenix backlog, Toronto Star	Page 27
Avocats recherchés pour une étude... sur eux, Droit Inc	Page 28
'I don't trust anybody': St. Anne's survivor feels betrayed, as federal government seeks $25K from lawyer, APTN National News	Page 29

Table of Contents / Table des matières

Lire ceci avant de se plaindre de son patron !, Droit Inc	Page 31
June 9, 2018
CrimeStopper charge stayed, Kelowna News	Page 35
Canada's child pornography regulations flagged for inconsistencies, say internal memos	Page 36
June 10, 2018
Ottawa must learn from failures on Indigenous programs, STAR EDITORIAL BOARD	Page 37
Rising inequality linked to drop in union membership, The Guardian	Page 38
Fixing a broken culture: public service in the wake of Phoenix, Ottawa Citizen	Page 40
June 11, 2018
PS executives wonder if Phoenix bosses' mistakes unfairly tarring all, iPolitics	Page 44
The U.K. and Canada: polar opposites when it comes to the terrorist threat, Hill Times	Page 47
Louis Riel: tragic Father of Confederation, Hill Times	Page 49
Un avocat devient DGE, Radio-Canada	Page 51