

Table of Contents

January 22nd 2018

- SCC decision helps those who want public interest standing at tribunals, Canadian Lawyer Magazine Page 1
- Leading in Litigation, Canadian Lawyer Magazine Page 2
- Juristes de l'État: le tribunal évalue la portée du privilège parlementaire, Droit Inc Page 19

January 23rd 2018

- International Justice Mission tackling tragic world of human trafficking, Medicine Hat News Page 9
- Revenu Québec : près de 200 requêtes en arrêt des procédures pour des dossiers de fraude, Radio-Canada Page 9
- Women execs in public service report feeling more stressed — but happier, iPolitics Page 11

January 24th 2018

- Public service needs better data to measure diversity, says task force, Hill Times Page 14
- Defence lawyers 'cringe' at 'unconstitutional' new sex-assault case rules in justice bill, Hill Times Page 16
- New judge named to the Superior Court of Justice of Ontario, Lawyer's Daily Page 20
- Federal judge loosens some of terror suspect Mohamed Harkat's release conditions, Toronto Star Page 21
- First Nations court smart move, Prince George Citizen Page 21
- Solitary confinement unconstitutional, rules B.C. Supreme Court, Lawyer's Daily Page 25
- Treasury Board's top bureaucrat leaving public service, iPolitics Page 29

January 25th 2018

- Freed Hassan Diab demands probe over 'terrorism' ordeal, AlJazeera.ca Page 23
- Civil servants 'exasperated' by Phoenix pay woes mobilizing before election, The Globe and Mail Page 28
- Le juge Gascon pédale pour la justice, Droit Inc Page 31
- Les heures facturables sont-elles devenues ridicules? Page 32

January 26th 2018

- More Phoenix woes: "Capacity" problems mean overpayments won't get processed on time, union head says, iPolitics Page 33
- RCMP Sentenced in Labour Code Trial, Canadian News Wire Page 36