

Table of Contents / Table des matières

January 29th 2018

- With Trudeau government past halfway mark, here's what lawmakers in Ottawa are looking to accomplish, National Post Page 1
- Mandatory public service training in Indigenous culture a step in the right direction, says elder, Edmonton Journal Page 3
- Opinion: A free press must not undermine fair administration of justice, Vancouver Sun Page 4
- Tax facts, Law Times Page 5
- In a 'David and Goliath' disciplinary hearing, Edmonton lawyer says his only crime was being honest, CBC News Page 6
- Opinion: Trudeau government is falling short on justice reform, Toronto Star Page 7
- Phoenix could soon get new PS contracts to process before finishing work on the old ones, iPolitics Page 8

January 30th 2018

- Canada's financial system is less transparent than Russia's, report says, Toronto Star Page 11
- Canada: Can Employers Require Mandatory Unpaid Standby Duty?, Mondaq.com Page 13

January 31st 2018

- Good grievance! Treasury Board wading through more than 4,000 Phoenix-related complaints, Hill Times Page 14

February 1st 2018

- Fintrac's money-laundering penalties in limbo after court ruling, CBC News Page 17
- Chief Justice Richard Wagner promises new era of transparency for Supreme Court, The Globe and Mail Page 20

February 2nd 2018

- Supreme Court rules band in B.C. can claim compensation for land theft during 1860s gold rush, The Globe and Mail Page 21
- Tax evasion doesn't seem like provinces' priority, finance ministry source says, Toronto Star Page 23

February 3rd 2018

- Federal government urged to set guidelines on hate crimes, Toronto Star Page 26
- L'avocat qui a fait acquitter Tom Harding, Droit Inc Page 27

February 4th 2018

- Tragédie de Lac-Mégantic : la MMA plaide coupable, Radio-Canada Page 30