

Table of contents / Table des matières

February 4th 2018

- Former tax lawyer takes feds to court over pension payout, Canadian Lawyer Magazine Page 1
- Justice Minister Wilson-Raybould concerned about low number of Indigenous people on juries, The Globe and Mail Page 3
- Comment: Indigenous rights are nothing to fear, Times Columnist Page 5

February 5th 2018

- Quebec government has left courthouses unsafe, special constables claim in lawsuit, CBC News Page 7
- Supreme Court chief justice says system to deal with judge misconduct is 'outmoded, slow and opaque', Toronto Star Page 9
- The new Chief Justice on not taking our judicial institutions for granted, CBA National Page 10
- Bankrupt railway and former employees settle, fined $1.25M in Lac-Mégantic case, Toronto Star Page 10

February 6th 2018

- Time limits for criminal trials don't respect Inuit culture, judge says, The Globe and Mail Page 12
- Canada's worst price-fixing cartels aren't the bread makers. It's politicians, Financial Post Page 14

February 7th, 2018

- Nine of 10 civil servants in Nova Scotia affected by Phoenix Pay debacle, The Chronicle Herald Page 15
- Trudeau intervenes in lawsuit against military because Justice lawyers' argument 'does not align' with beliefs, National Post Page 18
- Province invests more than $7M in Ottawa's justice system, CBC News Page 20
- Government of Canada announces judicial appointments in the province of British Columbia, Canadian Newswire Page 21
- Could cloud services signal the end of 'big zombie IT projects' in government?, Ottawa Citizen Page 22

February 8th 2018

- Phoenix pay issues leading federal workers to give up promotions, parental leave, union says, Toronto Star Page 24
- Union may consider expedited bargaining to reduce Phoenix workload, iPolitics Page 26
- Union wants compensation advisers put back into departments, iPolitics Page 28
- 3 Indigenous candidates were considered to fill recent Supreme Court vacancy, Ottawa Citizen Page 31
- Feds closer to settling sexual misconduct lawsuit against Canadian Forces, CTV News Page 32
- Un député n'est pas au-dessus des lois, dit un juge, Droit Inc Page 32

Table of contents / Table des matières

February 9th 2018

- Inquiry into how Indigenous people are treated by the public service gets 10-month extension, CBC News Page 34
- A Murder Trial Stirs Emotions About Canada's Relations With Indigenous Population, The New York Times Page 34
- L'obligation de diversité chez les juristes crée des remous, Droit Inc Page 37
- B.C. Supreme Court chief justice calls on Ottawa to appoint more judges, CBC News Page 38
- Feds can't process all Phoenix overpayment claims in time for tax deadline, iPolitics Page 39
- Tracking Phoenix: Study will follow the escalating price tag, iPolitics Page 41

February 10th 2018

- 'We have to do better': Trudeau reacts to Gerald Stanley verdict, CTV News Page 43
- Protesters demand justice for teen shot at Maniwaki courthouse, CBC News Page 45

February 11th 2018

- 'Justice for Colten' rally draws protesters to Parliament Hill, Ottawa Citizen Page 47
- After Stanley verdict, lawyers say political commentary risks justice system independence, The Province Page 48
- Canada to launch new border security app that could go global, CBC News Page 49

February 12th 2018

- Les agents de Maniwaki ont-ils failli à leur devoir ?, Droit Inc Page 51