

Table of Contents / Table des matières

February 12th 2018

Quebec begins hearings in inquiry into relations between Indigenous people and province's public service – Toronto Star	Page 1
Ontario judge blasts bail hearing 'tainted by legal error' – Toronto Star	Page 1
Still No Charges for the Company Behind Canada's Largest Mining Spill – Vice News	Page 3
New provincial court judge for Northern Region - The Williams Lake Tribune	Page 6
Boushie case looms large over indigenous hearings in Montreal – CTV News	Page 8
The Most Lawyers In The World - Above the Law	Page 10
The sparse use of Canada's notwithstanding clause - The National Post	Page 10
No shortage on jury-fix ideas over the decades, but reform elusive - CTV News	Page 13

February 13th 2018

Why not just let jurors talk? – iPolitics	Page 15
Review: Putting Trials on Trial is a damning indictment of how legal system handles sexual assault - The Globe and Mail	Page 15
Justice minister defends saying Canada 'must do better' in wake of Boushie trial - National Post	Page 17

February 14th 2018

Canada has the opportunity to fix its justice system - Ottawa Sun	Page 19
Boushie family vows to seek justice-system changes - The Globe and Mail	Page 21
Ruling by Ontario judge aims to make bail courts less risk-averse - The Globe and Mail	Page 22
Justin Trudeau promises new focus on rights of Indigenous peoples – Toronto Star	Page 24
RCMP telecommunications staff vote to join Canadian Union of Public Employees – CBC News	Page 26
CUPE wins vote to represent RCMP members – iPolitics	Page 27
Un an après un retour au travail forcé, le moral des juristes est au plus bas – Radio-Canada	Page 28
Arrêt Jordan : 15 % des causes criminelles en Cour supérieure ont dépassé le délai – Radio-Canada	Page 29
Ottawa veut revoir le processus de sélection des jurés – Radio-Canada	Page 31

Table of Contents / Table des matières

February 15th 2018

More than jury tampering needed in Canada - Vancouver Sun	Page 33
It's time to let Canadian jurors speak freely about their verdicts, experts say – CBC News	Page 35
Federal stand in Russian spy citizenship case would fuel 'uncertainty': lawyers - CTV News	Page 37
Réactions prudentes des chefs autochtones au discours de Justin Trudeau - Radio-Canada	Page 39
Canada to create legal framework to guarantee indigenous rights – Reuters	Page 42
'Significant backlog' in drug testing could delay prosecution of fentanyl dealers - Vancouver Courier	Page 43
Challenges to drug-impaired driving charges likely to clog up Canada's courts, police warn – National Post	Page 45
Federal stand in Russian spy case would breed citizenship 'uncertainty': lawyers - National Observer	Page 46
 February 16th 2018
Trudeau propose une avocate commissaire à l'information – Droit Inc	Page 50
10 raisons pour devenir un avocat - Droit Inc	Page 51
Pay public servants for Phoenix stress, unions tell PM – CBC News	Page 53
Canada's Intelligence Reform: A Closer Look at Pending National Security Legislation – Lawfare	Page 54
New Federal Government Framework for Indigenous Rights - Fasken Bulletin	Page 58
Lac-Mégantic : le DPCP n'ira pas en appel contre les 3 accusés – Radio-Canada	Page 61
Editorial: Fix problems exposed by Stanley trial - Edmonton Journal	Page 62
 Do we want justice or a return to the Star Chambers? – iPolitics	 Page 65
NP View: The Liberals' retweet and hashtag strategy isn't actually helping First Nations – National Post	Page 67

Table of Contents / Table des matières

A call for justice – Winnipeg Free Press Page 68

February 17th 2018

Canadian justice system needs overhaul in light of Gerald Stanley verdict – CBC News Page 59

'We were innocent': How one survivor hopes to get justice for Duplessis Orphans – CBC News
Page 63

February 18th 2018

'No place' for racism in justice system, minister says - CTV News Page 72

Quebec court to hear appeal of challenge to British royal succession law – Canadian Press
Page 74

Defining 'Métis' is harder than you think - Times Colonist Page 75

February 19th 2018

Trudeau, Wilson-Raybould justified in speaking out after controversial Stanley verdict, marked a turning point for Canada, say MPs – Hill Times Page 77

La Cour d'appel étudie la Loi sur la succession au Trône britannique – Radio-Canada Page 81

Quatre motifs pour faire appel de l'acquittement de Stanley, selon un avocat – Radio-Canada
Page 81

Un jury représentatif, oui, mais jusqu'où ? - Droit Inc Page 83

Table of Contents / Table des matières