

Table of Contents / Table des matières

February 26th 2018

| | |
|--|---------|
| Phénix et l'expérience australienne : et si la facture atteignait 5 milliards?, Radio-Canada | Page 1 |
| Supreme Court unions case: Three reasons why it matters, BBC World News | Page 4 |
| Criminalizing Sex-Work Has Not Saved Indigenous Women, Huffington Post | Page 6 |
| How to fix court delays: court-facilitated arbitration, Canadian Lawyer Magazine | Page 8 |
| This Software Works Just as Accurately as Your Lawyer--Only 200 Times Faster, Inc.com | Page 11 |
| Government workers should get apology, compensation for Phoenix mess: NDP, CTV News | Page 12 |

February 27th 2018

| | |
|---|---------|
| How to fix Phoenix: Put payroll back in local hands, Australian experts say, CBC News | Page 14 |
| Victims want justice but police reluctant to investigate financial fraudsters, Vancouver Sun | Page 16 |
| U of T law prof. believes 'time is now' to talk about jury reform in Canada, Saskatoon Star | Page 21 |
| Avocats en détresse !, Droit Inc. | Page 22 |
| Budget fédéral 2018: de l'argent pour les femmes, les Autochtones et la science, Le Devoir | Page 24 |
| Federal government to scrap Phoenix pay system, invest in better customer service at CRA, Global News | Page 27 |
| Trudeau government appoints former Omar Khadr lawyer as federal judge, Global News | Page 28 |
| Editorial: Court access issues are not just about media, Saskatoon Star Phoenix | Page 30 |
| Court case highlights concerns about Indigenous representation on juries, The Globe and Mail | Page 31 |
| Lesser budget measures cover array of issues, from dead dollars to PTSD, National Post | Page 34 |
| The faces of Phoenix: Childbirth, a broken pay system and 'a magical unicorn', Ottawa Citizen | Page 35 |
| Canada learned from Australian experience, Phoenix minister says, CBC News | Page 38 |

February 28th 2018

| | |
|--|---------|
| Correcting Phoenix: Collecting overpayments from workers easier said than done, CBC News | Page 40 |
| FUREY: Trudeau Liberals just tabled Canada's first full-blown social justice budget, Toronto Sun | Page 42 |
| The social justice revolution has taken the law schools. This won't end well, National Post | Page 44 |
| Police used trips, booze, hockey tickets in $300K sting against John Buckley, CBC news | Page 45 |

| | |
|--|---------|
| Budget 2018 provides millions in new justice funding, expanded Unified Family Courts, Lawyers Daily | Page 48 |
| « Hacker » pour la justice, Droit Inc. | Page 52 |
| Système de paye Phénix : « On ne voit pas la lumière au bout du tunnel », Radio-Canada | Page 54 |
| L'ex-avocat de Khadr nommé juge fédéral, Droit inc. | Page 56 |
| Civil servants across Canada hold rallies against Phoenix pay system after Liberals promise replacement, Toronto Star, | Page 57 |
| Phoenix: 'How can you ask someone to serve their country when you can't even pay them?', Ottawa Citizen | Page 59 |
| Accused Ottawa killer again seeks 'Jordan decision' stay in long-running murder case, Ottawa Citizen | Page 61 |
| Budget 2018: What's in it for justice, CBA National | Page 62 |
| Christie Blatchford: Messing with jury selection won't fix Indigenous alienation from justice system, National Post | Page 64 |
| March 1st 2018 | |
| Another Phoenix glitch results up to 86,000 incorrect PS tax slips, iPolitics | Page 66 |
| Canada to Scrap IBM Payroll Plan Gone Awry Costing C$1 Billion, Bloomberg.com | Page 68 |
| Ontario judge blasts 'frustrating' lack of resources as trial delayed for year, National Post | Page 70 |
| Back to the Future: Way out of Phoenix fiasco runs through pay advisers in departments, iPolitics | Page 72 |
| March 2nd 2018 | |
| Jody Wilson-Raybould's vision to save Canada, Macleans | Page 77 |
| Judge shortage puts fraud trial in jeopardy, Toronto Sun | Page 83 |
| RCMP officer who used pepper spray on inmate says force was necessary, court hears, CBC news | Page 85 |

